EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Brenda Holmes on August 2, 2006.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 11, in the phrase "gate the optical signals outputted"; insert a comma before "outputted".

In claim 1, lines 12-13; delete "simultaneously at an identical timing on the time axis".

In claim 15, line 2; insert - -first and second- - before "optical delay waveguide".

In claim 15, line 2; replace "array" with - -arrays- -.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Claims 1-15 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

4. Regarding claim 1, prior art fails to disclose or fairly suggest an optical signal processing device, including an optical gate configured to gate optical signals, outputted from an optical combiner or entered into an optical delay waveguide, such that parts of the optical signals of different sets which come into a prescribed time-slot region at the identical timing are extracted simultaneously at the identical timing, in combination with all the limitations in the claim.

Claims 2-10 are allowed by virtue of their dependency.

5. Regarding claim 11, prior art fails to disclose or fairly suggest an optical signal processing device, including a plurality of optical gates configured to gate optical signals respectively provided on optical delay waveguides and configured to gate the optical signals entered into the optical delay waveguide array, such that parts of the optical signals of different sets which come into a prescribed time-slot region at the identical timing are extracted simultaneously at the identical timing, in combination with all the limitations in the claim.

Claims 12-15 are allowed by virtue of their dependency.

Conclusion

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
